Fountain International may disclose your personal information, without prior notice to you, in response to lawful law enforcement activity or other governmental request; to respond to subpoenas, court orders or lawful administrative agency requests for information, to enforce our contract or property rights, to protect ourselves or others, or when required or otherwise permitted by law. For example, we may share information to reduce the risk of fraud or if someone uses or attempts to use our site for illegal reasons or to commit fraud. Information we collect may also be transferred in connection with any sale or merger of the company or any division or business line of the company to which the information relates.

Fountain International uses commercially reasonable means to protect the integrity of our Site and the confidentiality of collected data.
